The Welcome of Father and Mother At Home

Words and Music

-by-

James W. Johnson

arranged by

J. L. Robinson

Price 25 ¢

Published By
James W. Johnson
Wellesley Hills, Mass.

THE WELCOME OF FATHER AND MOTHER AT HOME

Words and Music by
JAMES W. JOHNSON
Arr. by J. L. Robinson

Mod. Sostenuto
mf
rit.
a tempo
Have you thought a - bout the day when your he - roes sailed a - way To break op-pres-sion's chains on for-eign
a tempo
p shore And the glo - ry when they come hon - or bright and vic - try won And the rit.
a tempo
moth - er wait - ing at the cot - tage door I can see her stand - ing there with more rit.
a tempo
sil - ver in her hair the gar - den and the ro - ses all in bloom And the rit.

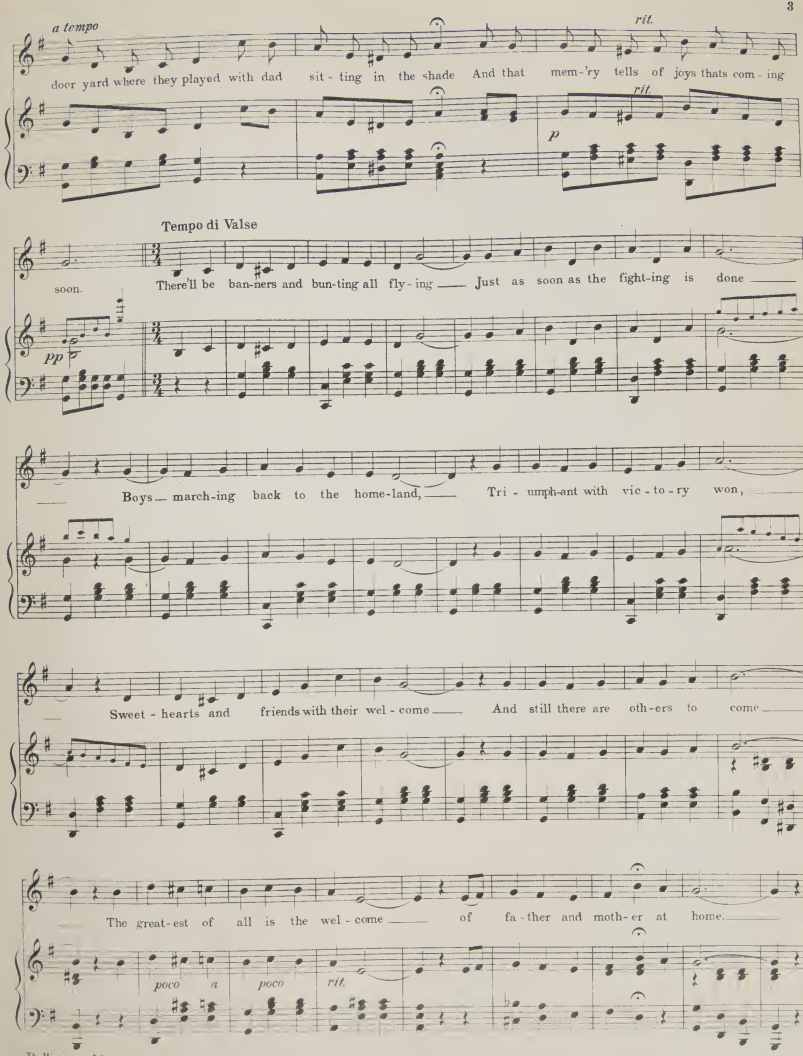
Copyright 1918 by James W. Johnson
International Copyright Secured



a tempo
rit.
door yard where they played with dad sit - ting in the shade And that mem-'ry tells of joys thats com - ing
rit.
p Tempo di Valse
soon.
There'll be ban-ners and bun-ting all fly - ing — Just as soon as the fight-ing is done —
pp
Boys — march-ing back to the home-land, — Tri - umph-ant with vic - to - ry won, — Sweet - hearts and friends with their wel - come — And still there are oth-ers to come —
The great-est of all is the wel - come — of fa - ther and moth-er at home.
poco a poco
rit.

It is a pleasure to me to introduce to the public, (as, it will be a pleasure to you to sing in honor of our Boys who answered freedoms call)

My Song entitled

"THE GALLANT SONS OF AMERICA"

Price 25¢ per copy, Special prices for Church and Community Choruses

TRY THIS MARCHING SONG

"WE'VE GOT TO BE GOING"

25¢ Per Copy

COMPOSED AND PUBLISHED BY

JAMES W. JOHNSON

WELLESLEY HILLS, MASS.